

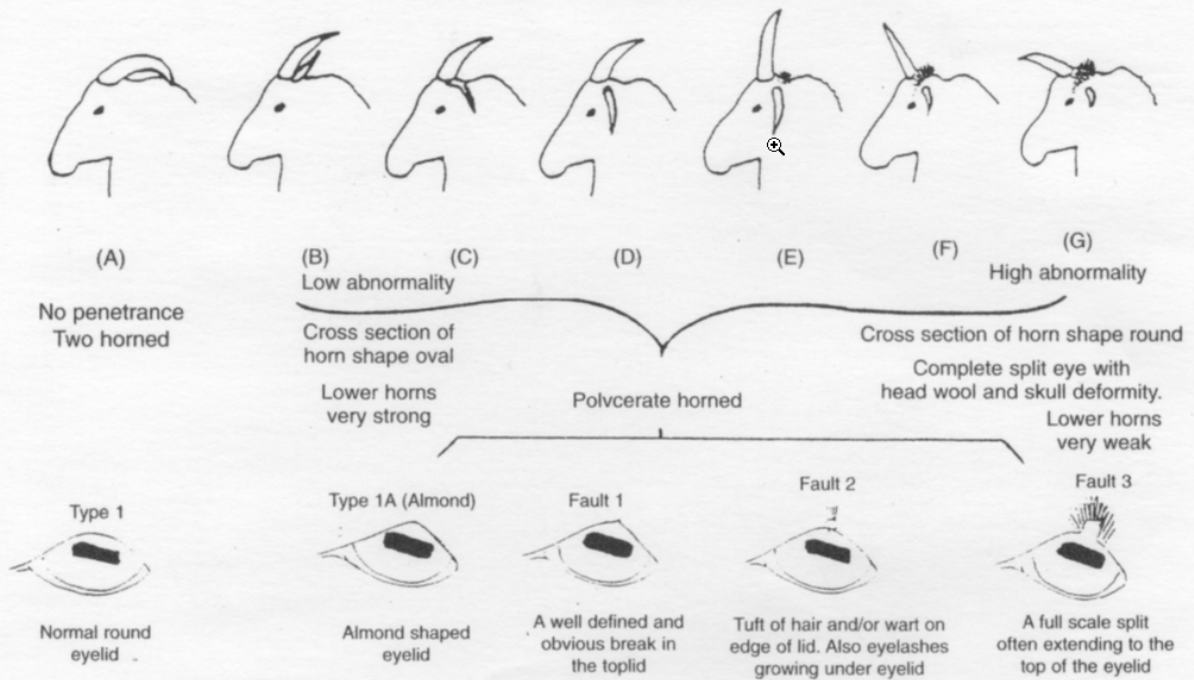

Figure 1

The Range of Expression

Pic. F & G: Long wool at rear of horns extending down forming a ridge of hair ending as a tuft over eyelid. These hairs brush against the eyeball causing irritation and blindness.

Fig. 1: The relationship between horn type, eyelids and head wool, showing the spread of the splitting field.